- Appropriateness of goals and objectives

I can't understand how one could even consider the breaching of the dams when you look at all the people who would suffer. If the salmon can be saved without human suffering, that would be great & there must be a way but this is not it. The people of Idaho must be considered first. Our farming economy must be considered. Too many Americans think that food "just comes from the grocery store". We need to realize it comes from →

The fields & the fields don't produce without water.
It's not just the farmers who will suffer. The many many people & businesses from agriculture to retail will also suffer. Please do not destroy our livelihood or the economy of Idaho.
