Bruce's Eddy facilities limited during five-day clean-up project

Orofino, Idaho – Boaters accustomed to using Bruce's Eddy ramp number 1 on the Dworshak Reservoir may want to choose a different location from which to launch their water fun for a while, according to Park Ranger Deb Norton.

Bruce's Eddy ramp number 1, the log-handling area and portions of the parking lot will be closed to public access starting Sept. 20 – 24, 6:30 a.m. - 5 p.m. The public restrooms and a small portion of the parking area will remain open for public use. Bruce's Eddy number 2 ramp is closed for the season.

During the temporary closure, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers staffers will remove debris from the reservoir at these locations. Dworshak officials encourage boaters to use the boat ramp at Big Eddy during the work period.
